INTRASOFT underlines European market leadership with Eurostat wins

Luxembourg, 28 February 2017 - INTRASOFT International, a global ICT company, has recently expanded its service offering portfolio within the European Institutions market segment.

New projects to deliver IT services to Eurostat have been awarded to INTRASOFT International; the company will provide services covering interoperability, standardization and dissemination processes.

Eurostat, a Directorate-General of the European Commission, aims to provide the European Union with a high quality statistical information service. Eurostat implements standards, methods and classifications to produce comparable, reliable and relevant data. The role of INTRASOFT will be to assist Eurostat in reaching its objectives through the development, support and maintenance of tailored statistical production applications. INTRASOFT will further provide services in the field of Eurostat's integrated dissemination systems and reusable solutions for the dissemination of statistics.

Mr. Alexandros Manos, Managing Director of INTRASOFT International commented: "These newly-awarded Eurostat contracts stand as testament to the high calibre services that INTRASOFT provides to its clients. The European Institutions is a challenging market and we are pleased to continue our tradition of excellence in this field."
